

/Insert/

For example, in October 1953, the title and scope of the IPI were changed to Intelligence Publications Index to include finished intelligence monographs and periodicals. Two years later, the IPI changed its contents format by using a classed index in three sections: 1) subject, 2) area, and 3) monographs arranged by source.<sup>4</sup>